Day of the Dead Celebration Faith Lutheran Church November 2 @ 5:00 pm

Dia de Los Muertos is a popular Mexican celebration. Its origin dates back to the Mesoamerican cultures that inhabited the Mexican territory before the arrival of the Spaniards, such as the Mexican, Maya, Mixtec, Texcocan ethnic groups. Originally, according to the Mixtec calendar, it is celebrated during the ninth month of the solar year, to honor the deceased. It takes place on November 2, although celebrations begin on November 1. The ritual aims to honor the life of the ancestors, the dearly departed. All kinds of offerings are placed on an altar that is raised in their memory as a gift.

The presence of the family dead is celebrated, and that day they return home to be with their relatives and to be nourished and enjoy the offerings that have been dedicated to them.

Faith Lutheran Church is proud to host a Day of the Dead celebration this year on Saturday, November 2, from 5pm-8pm in Parish Hall. There will be an altar and traditional Mexican food and beverages to enjoy. Come and celebrate with us!

Phoenix CROPWalk @ Grace Lutheran Church, Phoenix, Sunday, November 4 1:30 pm Check In, 2:00 pm Walk

Each year, people of faith of various traditions gather to raise awareness and funds for local and global hunger through the CROPWalk. A one to three mile walk that happens in large cities and small towns throughout the United States, the CROPWalk is the oldest of all fundraising walks and funds both local food security efforts as well as global hunger relief programs. This year, the local designee of the Phoenix CROPWalk is HART Pantry in Peoria which serves teenagers who experience food insecurity over the weekends when they cannot access school meals. Congregations may sign up as a team by contacting Pastor Sarah Stadler (pastorsarah@graceinthecity.com, 602-318-6876), or individuals may register on the CROPWalk website: www.crophungerwalk.org/phoenixaz. Those who wish to support our efforts but cannot walk are welcome to donate at www.crophungerwalk.org/phoenixaz!

Faith Lutheran Book Club

Wednesday, November 20

12:00 pm - 1:30 pm

The book for this month's book club is Dear Church: A Love Letter from a Black Pastor to the Whitest Denomination in the US by Lenny Duncan.

Lenny Duncan is the unlikeliest of pastors. Formerly incarcerated, he is now a black preacher in the whitest denomination in the United States: the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA). Shifting demographics and shrinking congregations make all the headlines, but Duncan sees something else at work--drawing a direct line between the church's lack of diversity and the church's lack of vitality. The problems the ELCA faces are theological, not sociological. But so are the answers.

Part manifesto, part confession, and all love letter, Dear Church offers a bold new vision for the future of Duncan's denomination and the broader mainline Christian community of faith. Dear Church rejects the narrative of church decline and calls everyone--leaders and laity alike--to the front lines of the church's renewal through racial equality and justice.

It is time for the church to rise up, dust itself off, and take on forces of this world that act against God: whiteness, misogyny, nationalism, homophobia, and economic injustice.

Duncan gives a blueprint for the way forward and urges us to follow in the revolutionary path of Jesus.

Join us for a discussion of the book in its entirety on November 20, at 1200 pm in the conference room at Our Saviour's Lutheran, 1212 E Glendale Ave.

With Hope... We Prepare for New Challenges

Ted Bolsinger, author of Canoeing the Mountains: Christian Leadership in Incharted Territory, identifies some of the most daunting challenges facing congregational life. He writes:

"The culture is changing, the world is changing rapidly, and churches are facing change on an unprecedented scale. Churches and church leaders are becoming increasingly irrelevant, even marginalized.

But the church is also at an exciting crossroads. We are entering a new day, new terrain and a new adventure. We are not alone. The Spirit of God goes before us. The mission of Christ will not fail. Yet, we have to learn to lead all over again."

Such challenges are not new topics of conversation among the pastoral and lay leaders of the Capital Conference. To focus, deepen, and advance these conversations, a task force including Mike Valder, Don Stevens, Lara Forbes, and Mark Holman has been planning an approach to identify some of our most pressing common challenges, and then explore creative ways to address them through collaborative efforts.

We build on strengths! Already, the congregations of the Capital Conference are cooperating through shared Confirmation programs and youth ministry. Many congregations have participated in pulpit exchanges, and some congregations have ventured into sharing staff. There will be more opportunities ahead as we imagine ways of being Church Together!

We need you. You will be invited. In February, the Task Force will offer an event to launch some necessary and hopeful conversations. Then, we will face the challenging facts of contemporary congregational life; and, we will identify and plan for additional creative approaches addressing our separate and shared mission.

In February, two elected leaders from each Capital Conference congregation, along with their pastors, will be invited to participate in these timely conversations. Watch for further announcements regarding this February event.
